Who now says the Republican party of Ohio is dead?

According to Senator Borah, the farmers are the "goats" of the new tariff law.

Some Republicans are really getting afraid that Gov. Cox won't be renominated.

According to the Cox theory of government, the principal duty of citizens is to pay taxes.

Can anybody count up how many millions of dollars the Wilson administration has already cost the country?

Again it is demonstrated that extravagance and deficits go along with Democratic control. The President's state, New Jersey, is threatened with a deficit of $2,500,000.

Here are the leading headlines over a recent dispatch to the Cincinnati Enquirer from its Columbus correspondent—and they are a political mullum in parvo:

"Promise
"Of Bull Moosers
"To Enter Contest in Ohio
"Releases Democrats."

Significance of the Election in Iowa.

Nothing less than a rebuke of free-trade and a reaction back to sound and stalwart Protectionism is to be inferred from the result of the special election of February 11 in the Second District of Iowa to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Congressman Pepper. The district was conceded to be strongly Democratic; so strongly Democratic that in the election of 1912 the Republicans did not put up a candidate in opposition to Pepper, whose election was practically unanimous. In 1910 Pepper was elected by a plurality of nearly 3,000 over his Republican opponent. In 1912, Wilson received 19,371 votes, Roosevelt 13,600 and Taft 8,303.

Now mark the change from 1912. The Democratic candidate for Congress this year received more than 6,000 votes less than Wilson in 1912; the Progressive vote fell from 13,600 in 1912 to 3,770 in 1914; the Republican nominee, though placed in the field only nine days before the election, received 10,765, as against 8,303 for Taft in 1912; a heavy loss for the Democrats and Progressives, and a big gain for the Republicans.

Analysis of the vote shows that in the cities the Democrats barely held their own, while in the farming districts the Democrats and Progressives lost heavily and the Republicans made immense gains. This is the first opportunity that American farmers have had to pass judgment on the free-trade tariff of 1913. In a little more than four months they have found ample reason to revolt against free-trade and return to the support of protection. With anything near the same ratio of change in the farmer vote that is shown in the Second Iowa District the Lower House of the Sixty-fourth Congress, to be elected next November, will be Republican and Protectionist by a safe majority. That much seems to be assured by the result in Iowa.—American Economist.
